

Lights! Action! Celebrations!

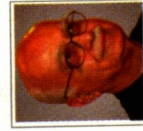

Bangalore to Hampi - 315 kms. By train (overnight). By road (6 hours).

Music, Dance, Drama, Colour, Sparkling Lights; it's a cultural extravaganza quite unlike anything you have seen before. A reflection of the glorious Vijayanagara Empire. Where pearls, diamonds, silks and spices were sold in street markets. Where art, architecture, dance and music had evolved to new heights. Now, India's legends* of dance and music are about to recreate the splendour and grandeur of the mighty Vijayanagara Empire through their dazzling performances. Bringing Hampi, one of India's most renowned World Heritage Sites, alive with the sounds, colours and lights of celebration. Be there to witness the magic unfold from 3rd to 5th November, 2008.

Nearby places of interest: Sanganakallu - Asia's most ancient village settlement (Neolithic age), Daroji Wildlife Sanctuary, Bellary Fort and Sandur Lake.
