

Age No Bar

Another Nishabd in the making? Debutant actor Layla Khan, 20, tries to do a Jiah Khan in Rakesh Sawant's Wafaa as she plays a 21-year-old married to a 60-year-old. And he's no ordinary older guy. Rajesh Khanna, trying to make a big screen return once again, plays Khan's husband. The marriage falls apart because of the age difference. "I wanted an actor who resembled Dimple Kapadia," says Sawant. Wonder if Khanna gave actual details of his marital problems.

Note Worthy

It took her six years to hit the right note, but singer Shruti Pathak says the wait has been worth it. The singer is the voice behind Mar jaawaan, the chart topper from Fashion. "Many musicians now want me to sing for their compositions," says Pathak. She has already sung for Karan Johar's untitled production and is awaiting the release of Anurag Kashyap's Dev D.

“

"I travelled to Haryana and Punjab to research music for the largely Punjabi soundtrack."

SUCCESS THEOREM

Supermodel Saira Mohan seems to have a special connection with the Bachchans. After a cameo opposite Abhishek in Kabhi Alvida Naa Kehna, the model-turned-actor will soon be seen with Amitabh in Leena Yadav's thriller Teen Patti. "The film traces the relationship between a mathematics professor and his protégés," says the beauty of Indian and Irish-French descent. Hope this formula works.
