

India Responds

'Don't be lenient...'

BHASKAR PAUL

INDIA TODAY has received over 72,000 pledges declaring war on terror. Some 31,000 readers sent in suggestions. Excerpts:

Why is the Indian political system so corrupt that the authorities could not arrange a flight on time and bullet-proof jackets for our brave commandos?
ANUP, Bengaluru

Indians should fight against terror with unity without thinking about their religious, caste or political affiliations.

NIRANJAN PARDESHI, Pune

I would like to suggest to my fellow citizens that to change the circumstances India is in, we have to change our leadership. We would love to see iron-willed people like Kiran Bedi, T.N. Seshan and K.P.S. Gill hold top posts and then a new India will surface in no time.

GARIMA SRI SHARMA, Mumbai

Corruption has become an integral part of our system and it has to be weeded out. The first impulse of a government official is to take bribes. We have to punish the guilty. Only then will our efforts to make India a great nation succeed.

VAMSHI, Bengaluru

Our oneness and integrity will definitely curb terrorism. I pledge solemnly that I will give my hand to the war against terror.

RADHAKRISHNAN SEETHARAMAN, Cuddalore

These politicians will have to understand their responsibilities towards the nation. They should rise over party politics and respect the feelings and expectations of the people.

NIRMAL TIWARI, Indore

Don't be lenient on terrorists and use whatever force is required to bring them down so that justice can be done to all those innocent people they have killed.

P.V. ARIEL, Secunderabad

CITIZENS' CHARTER

What YOU Can Do?

Turn your concern into action. FIVE simple things you can do now, that can make a significant impact on our War on Terror:

1 MONITOR SECURITY

Urge the management of your children's school and your office to improve the security set-up by organising copies of the buildings' blueprints and conducting regular safety drills.

2 NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

Create an active neighbourhood watch. Report any suspicious activity and person in your colony to the police. It may take two minutes but it may save a life.

3 BE WELL-EQUIPPED

Get active in your community. Get the details of your Residents' Welfare Association. Remember, safety is a local initiative.

4 CREATE AN SOS HUB

Make a list of the emergency care centres in your area with their addresses and contact numbers. Distribute them to the residents around you. Petition for better facilities, if they are inadequate.

5 BE DOUBLY SURE

Employ people or rent out houses only after duly verifying backgrounds and getting routine police verification done.
