QUIZ TIME FOR STUDENTS IN STEEL CITY

The year has come around and it is quiz time once again. This is the fourth year for the inter school quiz contest organised by INDIA TODAY. This quiz with a difference is aimed at reviving reading habits among school kids. The students are encouraged to read INDIA TODAY magazine for a period of four months before they get to participate in the quiz contest.

The first INDIA TODAY school quiz started in 2005 with 41 schools hosted at Delhi Public School, Siliguri. In 2007, the third year of the event, 15000 students from 104 schools participated in the event.

This year the event is partnered by SAIL, Bokaro Steel Plant and Delhi Public School, Bokaro. 150 schools will participate in a three day quiz marathon scheduled to be held from December 19 to December 21, 2008 at the Bokaro Club. The elimination rounds will be held on December 19 where the top 40 schools will be selected for the Semi Final Round. The Final will be held on December 20.

This event in its third year is flourishing under the patronage of Mr. V.K. Srivastava, Managing Director, Bokaro Steel Plant, Mr. Jeevesh Mishra, Executive Director (P&A), Bokaro Steel Plant, Mr. S.S. Narayanan, General Manager (CSR), Bokaro Steel Plant and Dr. (Mrs) Hemlata S. Mohan, Principal, DPS, Bokaro.
