

BABA BOO-BOO

While the battle for Section 377 might be going on in court, gay rights supporter Celina Jaitley (L) and opposer Baba Ramdev have decided to have their own little sideshow. Not happy with declaring that he has a "cure" for homosexuality, the yoga guru is taking the actor head on by commenting on her "changing partners". Celina, not surprisingly, is livid. "Isn't he a brahmachari? He is the first baba who seems to know more about my sex life than even me," she retorted. "Stick to yoga," she adds. Over to you, Baba Ramdev.

SHAILESH RAVAL

Party People

A regular at Bangalore's social soirees, Sangeetha Gopal might soon be crowned queen bee. Her skills as a page 3 host will soon be seen on 70 mm. Director K.M. Chaitanya has roped in Gopal to host a real life party that will be seen in his forthcoming film Suryakanti. "I've known Chaitanya since childhood and I'm always partying. When he asked me, I was game," says Gopal. Chaitanya jokes that it will help 'cut costs'. And provide publicity, eh?

SOUND SCORE

One of India's first women rockers, Chandrani Banerjee, 35, may just become the international face of Bengali music. The work of the lead vocalist of Bangla band, Krosswindz, is being nominated in the categories of best Indian album and best Indian song at the Just Plain Folks 2009 Music Awards. As competition, legends like A.R. Rahman and Ilaiyaraaja are sharing space, making these nominations so special.

SUVASHIS MULLICK

BRING IT ON

Gurmeet Kaur also known as Palak (R) earned her stripes as a foul-mouthed reality TV star on MTV Roadies. She is now back on Sony's Iss Jungle Se Mujhe Bachaao where she plans to battle in the wilderness of Malaysia. We have seen her fangs, now get ready for her claws.

There are other wanna-shines on the show but we're waiting for Palak's face-off with Anuradha Bali, now Fiza. After her quick marriage and quicker divorce to Chand Mohammad, the lawyer-turned-publicity-hound lived the better part of her recent life like a reality show. She finally gets to be on one.

Light Khao,
Light Raho.

DRAFTFCB • ULKA 950536

Enriched with natural wheat fibre.

Crisp and Light, perfect with your cup of tea.

0% Transfat 0% Cholesterol

with extra Fibre