PLACEMENT MATTERS 100% AT HIERANK

Noida's Hierank School of Management Technology is riding high on wits 100 per cent placement record for the MBA class of 2008. Last year 21 Companies came to Hierank for recruitments. These included a number of retail operators, including Carrefour, The SPA Group and LMG Brands, besides Reliance, ITC, Globus Max Retail, Marks & Spencer. HP, IBM, HCL, Samsung, LG and Oswal now, the business school is all set to best its own record this years.

Hierank operates under the umbrella of the ABR Education Foundation, a non-profit body set up by a group of leading academics and industrialists. Says its Founder Chairman, Prof. Rajesh Sahay: "We are satisfied with the achievement of our students despite the gloomy economic forecasts." Prof. Sahay said, the credit for the placement record should go to the school's curriculum, which is designed to address industry needs, "The splendid blend of academics and basic human values has taken even industry experts by surprise," he said.

Says the business school's Director (academics), Prof. Yashwardhan Sahai who's a product of IIT-Kharagpur and IIM-Bangalore: "The basic foundation and value system is build and set up by the family you belong to and the institution where you have completed your education. Hierankers are always ready to excel."

Programmes run by the Hierank School of Management Technology as well as its sister institutions, Hierank Business School & Hierank School of competitions which offer BBA, BCA & B.Sc. (Biotech) & IIT-JEE, AIEEE, DCE, PMT, Bank Probationary officer's entrance preparation, respectively, are benchmarked against the world's best business school and institutes. HBS, BBA Ranked amongst top 10 in India by Chronicle and Ranked No. 1 by Business Sphere for value addition teaching but their experienced faculty doesn't believe in basking in past glory. Like good golfers, they encourage their students to compete against themselves and keep doing better.
