The Vaughn Connection

- ✕ The Vaughn College of Aeronautics and Technology (VCAT), an accredited institution, was established 75 years ago in New York, USA.
- ✕ The Forum for Indo-US collaboration for Engineering Education, formed by Professors, Deans & Vice Provosts of US Universities, sponsored by the American Society for Engineering Education, opined that the Sreenidhi-Vaughn model of offering the BS courses is excellent and has to be emulated by other institutions in India.
- ✕ Dr. P. Narasimha Reddy, our Director, has been invited to participate in the Washington DC forum of Indo-US collaboration initiative to formulate action plans for improving Indian Technical Educational System to be in line with US system.
