

“ It's really great that I am going to see the ICC World Cup. World Cup is a very big thing and India is a very good team.

I think they will win the match. I'll tell Dhoni to win the match and bring the trophy to India and we'll be proud of him. ” every part of the country. The attempt was to reach out to every child living in this country. No kid would be denied the opportunity of meeting his or her hero.

-Madhav

THE SELECTION

The response to LG Lead XI was overwhelming. Entries poured in from every part of the country, big towns and small towns alike. Thousands of kids answered LG's invitation to showcase their talents for an opportunity to meet their favourite cricketers. The judges faced a mammoth task. It was

“ I saw an event happening at the mall. I immediately rushed home and got my son and his tabla.

He played and mesmerised the audience and the next thing we knew he was on his way to be a part of LG Lead XI. ”
-Said an elated father.

Winners of LG Lead XI with the Indian cricket team.

virtually impossible to select just 15 from the sea of entries. After some extremely demanding weeks, the judges were ultimately able to narrow it down to the final 15. These 15 would lead Team India onto the field on a rotational basis.

THE GRAND BALL

A Press Conference was held in Delhi on 28th May to declare the winners. Adding glamour to the celebrations was the reigning queen of Bollywood, Kareena Kapoor who graced the occasion and felicitated the 15 talented children.

THE WINNERS

Sirjanjeet Singh (Ghaziabad), Yajanta Bansal (Panchkula), Neha Kaur (Kolkata), David Noronha (Thane), Shravani Vohra (Noida), Ajitesh Gupta (Dehradun), Bhoomi Sharma (Ujjain), Jenica Mehta (Kolkata), Aabha Singh Tengeri (Thane), Rahul Nair (Pune), Yogitha Suresh (Bangalore), Perna Panolil (Hyderabad), Madhav Nangru (Gurgaon), D. Varun Nankani (Chennai) and Rutvi Chetanbhai (Rajkot) were a bubbly and excited lot.

THE GLORIOUS MOMENT

So, on 6th June 2009, the first 11 of the talented 15 found themselves rubbing shoulders with the Indian Cricket Team at the centre of the field. And a nation started believing in dreams once again. ■

-Advt.