METHODOLOGY

To gauge the mood of the electorate in the run-up to the 15th General Elections, INDIA TODAY commissioned the country's leading pollsters ORG-MARG-AC Nielsen to conduct a nation-wide survey. The poll was conducted from February 16, 2009 to March 10, 2009 and covered 12,374 eligible voters spread across 98 parliamentary constituencies in 19 states. Within each parliamentary constituency, two segments were selected. The poll was done on the basis of stratified systematic random sampling and covered all age groups, gender and urban divide in all selected constituencies. House-to-house and face-to-face interviews were done using the right hand rule of field in the selected constituencies. The sample break-up was thus: of the 12,374 voters, 5,286 were urban while 7,088 were rural. Male voters accounted for 6,294 while females made up 6,080 voters. Of the sample, 2,339 voters were in the 18-24 age group, 6,313 fell in the 25-44 age group while the rest were 45 years or older. Respondents were chosen on the basis of the strength of their state's representation
