

Mom worries

What do mothers worry about when it comes to children's health? Where are mothers the happiest and where are they the least?

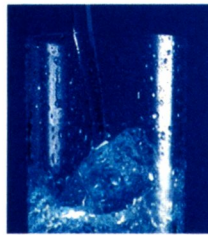

Source: Lifebuoy Child Health Quotient Survey, March 2009

CLEAN SURROUNDINGS

PURE WATER

NUTRITIOUS FOOD

Most happy: 100% CHENNAI & BANGALORE

Least happy: 88% MUMBAI

HYGIENE HABITS

Most happy: 100% BANGALORE

Least happy: 87% MUMBAI

Knot Smart

The All India Institute of Medical Sciences is once again ready to roll out the hugely-successful "Pre-Marriage Training Course for Happy Married Life" (April 29-30). Nothing like a chat with the good doctors to clear all your doubts and apprehensions. Get in touch with Dr Bir Singh at 011-26594985 (10 am to 4 pm, Monday to Friday before April 15) or email: pmcaiims@gmail.com. By the way, you have to be above the age of 18.

SAFE blood
2,455 blood banks and not one you can trust blindly. Now with the blessings of the Quality Council of India you can count them on your fingers:
Mool Chand Hospital, Delhi; International Hospital in Noida; Escorts Heart Institute, Delhi; Dr Hedgewar Raktapedhi in Akola; NTR Memorial Trust in Hyderabad; Max Blood Bank in Saket, Delhi; Wockhardt Blood Bank in Mumbai and Fortis in Noida. Some bracing news from the least talked about segment of the medical industry.

■ Compiled by Damayanti Datta

IS YOUR TEA too hot?

A word of warning for those who love a hot cuppa morning, noon, night and anywhere in between: wait for five minutes before gulping it down. Researchers have found that the risk of oesophageal cancer goes up eight-fold as a result of drinking beverages hotter than 70°C. Waiting for the drink to cool lowers the risk. Go slow.