

Money WADIS

The BSP, which claims to represent the poor and the downtrodden, has fielded some of the richest candidates

DEEPAK BHARDWAJ WEST DELHI

Current Assets:

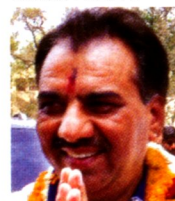

Rs 622 crore

He is the richest candidate in these elections. A landlord and coloniser, he is at present constructing a hotel. He believes that only the rich can serve people better.

VIKRAM SHARMA

KANWAR SINGH TANWAR SOUTH DELHI

Current Assets:
Rs 153.71 crore

Owens land and a hotel, and exports medicines. During assembly elections, he had filed assets worth Rs 167 crore.

AKHILESH DAS LUCKNOW

Current Assets:
Rs 54.04 crore

He was with the Congress before and a MoS in the Manmohan Government. He runs many educational institutions.

ALI ABU BAKAR SHAIKH SOUTH MUMBAI

Current Assets:
Rs 31.17 crore

His assets include jewellery of over Rs 31 lakh. Facing charges of murder, conspiracy and under the Arms Act in Mumbai.

D.S. KULKARNI PUNE

Current Assets:
Rs 29.72 crore

This builder-turned-politician is a leading developer in Maharashtra. He is contesting for the first time and has just joined BSP.

HAJI MUSTAQEEM CHANDNI CHOWK

Current Assets:
Rs 20.02 crore

His assets mainly comprise his frozen meat export business. Contesting elections for the first time.

HAJI DILSHAD ALI NORTH EAST DELHI

Current Assets:
Rs 16.5 crore

He owns a shop of electrical hardware. He was in Tihar jail for attacking Bhajanpura police station; now on a week's bail.

RAKESH PANDEY AMBEDKAR NAGAR

Current Assets:
Rs 16.4 crore

A former SP MLA, he joined BSP a little before his ticket was given. He runs a liquor business and a vegetable oil factory.

ASHOK BAJPAI ALLAHABAD

Current Assets:
Rs 14.95 crore

Son of late Congress leader Rajendree Bajpai. Entered BSP after relations went bad with state leaders of the Congress.

BIMALENDRA MISHRA FAIZABAD

Current Assets:
Rs 10.81 crore

He is a scion of Ayodhya's royal family and is entering electoral politics for the first time. Joined BSP recently.

Source: Election Commission of India, CEOs of the States and Association for Democratic Reforms.