Social Acts of Bravery Award winner Grace Nirmala is doing a great service to society through Ashray, an organisation fighting the age-old practice of joginis and helping ex-joginis and their children to begin life anew.

Social Acts of Bravery Award winner Pratibha Devi, who in her immeasurable generosity, has taken into her care many street orphans as well as street dogs, despite her making a meagre living as a rag picker living in the backlanes of Delhi.

Social Acts of Bravery Award winner Parmaben Sava, has brought life-saving healthcare to women in remote Kutch villages and trained a network of over 2,000 skilled midwives. She has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize for her pioneering work.

It is the silent
relentless everyday
courage, sacrifice
and endurance
that is the toughest,
that is the real
courage and the Bravery of
so many anonymous
Indians that I have had the fortune
to meet.
