

Cover story
AMBANI VS AMBANI

IT'S NOT JUST A FIGHT FOR JUSTICE OVER A GAS CONTRACT. IT'S A BATTLE FOR POLITICS

| By Shankkar Aiyar |

It is big. It's rocking several reputations. It is rivetting. It has all the ingredients that lure cash to the box-office. It is a battle for wealth; even the conservative estimate of over Rs 50,000 crore is serious money. Every bit a blockbuster, it stars an anguished mother, brothers separated by a war for wealth, united by sepia-tinted memories of their father Dhirubhai Ambani and the obsession to be the biggest. It is also a sequel. If Steven Spielberg were to make this film it would be called Close Encounters II. But this battle with Mukesh Ambani is being directed by Anil Ambani. It would probably be titled Hello Brother or better still Love Aaj Kal in keeping with his wicked sense of humour. This season's release too is about inheritance. As