

| By Ashok Damodaran and Priya Sahgal |

Ask any corporate leader and he will tell you that for a company to grow, it is imperative that the senior management be totally committed to its ideals. Jaswant Singh traversed the nearly 350 km from Delhi to Shimla by train and road, and discovered that his credentials as part of the senior management of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) were found to be suspect. The former external affairs minister was doing his customary dressing up for the occasion on August 19 morning when he received a call from party president Rajnath Singh asking him not to come for the opening session of the Chintan Baithak, due to start at 11 a.m. Two hours later, Rajnath called him again. This time, the news

(FROM LEFT) RAJNATH SINGH, L.K. ADVANI AND MOHAN BHAGWAT AT A BJP MEETING; JASWANT SINGH (SECOND FROM RIGHT, BEHIND FIRST ROW) SEEMS OBLIVIOUS TO THE PROCEEDINGS

SIPRA DAS