Director: Vishal Bhardwaj
Starring: Shahid Kapur,
 Priyanka Chopra

Charlie believes in two things: a short cut and ek chota short cut. Guddu has his life mapped out, from sex in 2009 to marriage in 2014. Sweetie likes to have unprotected sex and dances at her own baraat. They're just some of the characters in Vishal Bhardwaj's inventive Mumbai landscape, perpetually sheathed in a mist of rain and splattered with mud. It's teeming with polyglot gangsters, one who smokes cigars, another who fondles guns, and yet another who loves the smell of a vada pav. There are twins, one good, one bad; one who stutters and another who lisps. The movie dazzles with its intricate plot, its tour de force camerawork by Tassaduq Hussain, and its outrageous dialogues. The climax is operatic, with guns blazing, smoke billowing and bodies falling, and the film's pace frenetic. This is a film where a ghoda (horse) runs and a ghoda (Mumbai-speak for a gun) kills. Where everyone is a Charlie. Where people sing in expletives set to the tune of Karan Johar's Kuch Kuch Hota Hai. Shahid Kapur and Priyanka Chopra dig into their roles greedily while Chandan Roy Sanyal as the spoilt Mikhail and Amole Gupte as the mercurial Bhope Bhau are outstanding. Watching it is like sticking your head out of a Mumbai fast train at peak traffic. Thrilling but deadly.

IF YOU HAVE 60 MINUTES, watch The Other Song, a film on the song Lagat job anwa ma chot by Rasool Bai at the India Heritage Centre, Bangalore, August 29.

MUSIC REVIEWS

Mixed & MATCHED

DADDY COOL
 BIG Music Rs 160

Remember Boney M's Daddy Cool? Raghuvaran has lifted part of it and sings it with Paroma P. Dasgupta; Neha Bhaseen sings Nasha Nasha; two tracks from Dhamaal composed by Adnan Sami seem to be the fillers.

DIL BOLE HADIPPA!
 YRF Music Rs 149

Pritam's attempt to give a contemporary feel to bhangra in Hadippa with Mika's help is brilliant. K.K., Sunidhi Chauhan, Rana Mazumder, Sonu Niigaam and Shreya Ghoshal lend their voices to this high energy album.

SHANTI MANTRAS
 Silk Road Rs 399

The 10-song album tries to reinterpret and transform some of the oldest prayers using a variety of ragas. All tracks have been composed and performed by sarod artiste Bhargav Mistry along with others.

FESTIVAL

Evolutionary Road

From Velu who turns into the menacing Nayagan in a much cloned movie, to Vaasu, who falls in love with Sapna and sings Ek Duje Ke Liye, India Habitat Centre, Delhi, celebrates 50 years of an actor who never fails to surprise. Kamal Haasan, 55, will be on for Film Club members on August 21 (Sagara Sangamam), August 24 (Ek Duje Ke Liye), August 25 (Anbe Sivam), August 26 (Nayagan), and August 27 (Hey Ram). The films showcase his versatility with languages as well as with the language of cinema. Never one to shy away from difficult subjects or forms, from a Hindutva angle to patriotism to a silent film, Kamal Haasan's cinema continues to evolve. All at 7.30 p.m., except Hey Ram which is at 7 p.m.
