

MUNNA & BHAI

ACTOR-TURNED-POLITICIAN Sanjay Dutt, wife Manyata and 'big brother' Amar Singh (in white bandana) soak in the adulation at a public reception in Lucknow. Dutt's candidature caused a storm as did his 18th-century views on how married women must take up their husband's surnames. Munnabhai was just so much better for his image.

BHOPAL | Web of Ideas

After the success of his social sector schemes, Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan is casting his net wide for ideas on development. The result? A website ideasformcm.com, where any citizen can offer his suggestion to improve the delivery systems of MP Government departments. Launched on January 19, the contents of the website will be handled by the CM Secretariat, which will look at the suggestions and pick up the best ones for implementation. This isn't the first time that an out-of-the-box idea has made its presence felt in Madhya Pradesh. During the Congress's reign, Digvijay Singh launched a website inviting corporates to fund government schools. He also launched a CM's Fellowship Programme. But as Singh's interest in the projects declined, the euphoria died. It's now up to Chouhan to make sure ideasformcm.com doesn't meet the same fate. by Ambresh Mishra

Dear Friends,

A warm welcome to you.

I have an unflinching faith in the innate wisdom of my people. The voice of their thoughts must not only be heard but also given a fair chance of being realized.

I have a dream that one day Madhya Pradesh will march ahead of others. A day when we would be looked upon as role models of progress and social justice. This will happen only when we join hands and contribute with all the vigor and resources at our command.

This website would enable me to reach out to those whom I may not have met in person. Let all your worthy ideas bloom. Let not the burden of chores in Government or the authority of any closed mind thwart your initiative or stifle
