

Indulge yourself in one of the luxurious signature spa treatments such as Total Body Wellness, Elixir of Youth and the Amrita Spa "Total Indulgence", which includes a Thermal Mineral Body Scrub, a one-hour full body massage followed by a Deluxe Pedicure, a 2-course spa lunch, a Spa Manicure, and a Traditional European Facial.

At the Grand Plaza Park Royal Hotel's Saint Gregory Spa, even non-guests can make advance appointments to enjoy services in quiet and luxurious surroundings. Inspired by the Balinese-styled poolside, its resort-like atmosphere is reflected in the use of natural elements such as water, bamboo and rattan, and even in the pebbled flooring embedded with real seashells and handcrafted doors, all beautifully restored by native Balinese artists. Pools are snuggled amid lush green plants, with soothing sounds of waves lilt through the air. The focal treatments are the hydrotherapy baths, but you can also get jet showers, steam baths, facials, body treatments, and hand, foot, and body massage.

Escape now to the sublime tranquility of The Asian Spa. Located at Singapore's finest heritage hotel, The Fullerton Hotel Singapore, The Asian Spa boasts a perfect union of panoramic city views and tantalizing spa treatments. Experience sheer romance while luxuriating together in the private Jacuzzi with a Fragrant Bath of Flowers or a Dead Sea Salts Minerals Bath, a relaxing bath treatment rich in mineral salts and trace elements.

An enchanting experience awaits at The Retreat Spa & Thalasso with the golden face and body treatment. The Golden Scrub, Golden bath, Golden Wrap and a sculpting body massage gently revitalise you and moisturise your body with their minerals in floral essential oils. Sojourn to a romantic setting and bask in each other's love while you renew your body, mind and spirit. You'll have an unforgettable experience together with your loved one.

One of Asia's best kept secrets, The Spa Botanica located at The Sentosa Resort & Spa on Singapore's Sentosa Island. This is a delightfully idyllic retreat for lovers honeymooning here, offering beautiful gardens, outdoor mud pools, pavilions and Galaxy Steam baths. The Royal Suite, a sensuously romantic escape for couples will revitalize and spoil both of you, with the reviving aroma of the seven jet shower and all time favourite - the King's Bath, a 450 kg bath hand-tooled meticulously from cast bronze to retain the warmth of sensuous milk, floral or herbal baths.

If you're looking to sign off this precious time in style, take a cruise. If the regular cruises are too common for you, book yourself in the Asian leg of Regent Seven Seas' world cruise that embarks from Hong Kong and ends in Singapore, with stops in Vietnam and Bangkok in between. The all-suite Seven Seas Mariner features balconies in every suite, and the Master Suite, which costs $90,949 for the two-week voyage, has 1,403 square feet of space, a nearly 200-square-foot balcony, two bedrooms and marble bathrooms. Butler service is included.

Indeed, Singapore provides the perfect setting for a honeymooning experience. Each moment spent in Singapore will create memories to last, woven together with wonderful experiences to cherish for a lifetime.
