

AFTER THE ACHIEVEMENT. BEFORE THE GLORY.

Cadbury
Bournville
fine dark chocolate
RICH COCOA

Men have moved mountains to reach for the stars since time immemorial. Maybe because it is believed that a bar of Bournville can be truly enjoyed only from dizzy heights. Because the science of making Bournville comes second only to the art of eating it. You never gobble up a Bournville, you take time out to gaze at it lovingly. You break it like it were bad news - gently. Hear the 'snap' but don't ask why, one day you'll know. Get lost in the aroma even before the thought of eating crosses your mind. Lastly, ask yourself 'Have I earned it?' If the answer is yes, welcome. Welcome to the good life.

YOU DON'T BUY A BOURNVILLE, YOU EARN IT.
