

Stars & Stripes

Like last year, a whole slew of actors hit the big screen. Two brand new actors hogged much airtime and print space. One couldn't stop talking about his mamu and the other couldn't stop talking. Imran Khan (right) and Harman Baweja created enough pre-release hype to last till 2050. But when their films released on the same day, one scored, the other bored.

Kareena Kapoor (right) stepped up her career but shed her curves for size zero, whatever that is. Tashan lacked attitude—among other things—but the Kapoor girl's bikini didn't miss a beat. Kidnap sank but Minnisha Lamba (below) stayed afloat in her white itty-bitsy. Priyanka Chopra (left) ended the year with her beach turn in a sparkling gold swimsuit in Dostana. If John Abraham hadn't played peek-a-boo in his yellow trunks, the girls would have had all the fun.

