

Presenting
the Bose 3·2·1TM systems
Now with HDMI

Experience the enhanced home theatre sound from almost anything you watch with greater simplicity than the traditional five-speaker surround systems.

The 3·2·1TM family of home entertainment systems deliver the cinematic 5.1-channel sound with just two speakers and a hideaway Acoustimass[®] module.

The system includes an elegant media centre featuring a progressive scan DVD/CD player with AM/FM tuner.

The new HDMI out allows video upscaling, you'll enjoy resolution upto 1080p.

The 3·2·1TM DVD Home Entertainment Systems come equipped with Videostage[®] 5 decoding circuitry to deliver home theatre performance from almost any source.
