

The only time when you can colour the sky.

It's that time of the year again when you can paint the sky with colours of your imagination at the International Kite Festival. To be held in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, this is perhaps the only event in the world where these special days are dedicated to a remarkable display of splendid kites flown by expert kitists from all over the world.

As kitists and tourists, you will also be escorted to the interiors of Ahmedabad & nearby cities to experience the true fervour of this festival. So, get together to participate in the celebrations of Uttarayan and see the sky come alive with a vivid display of kites like never before.
