Everyday

As the member of the Indian Cricket team, I can never lose my aggression for victory, my fitness to perform, my passion for the game. And to ensure that, I lose lethargy, calories and exhaustion. The way I have been able to do so is by simply dropping sugar from my food and switching to Dabur Honey, whether I am having milk, toast or cornflakes. Because Dabur Honey has some amazing benefits which are hard to ignore. These benefits matter a lot. After all, I got to keep myself fit and active to meet the demands of a cricket-crazy billion people. In Dabur Honey, I have found a way to do so. Now, I want my country to switch to Dabur Honey too. After all, it's such a simple way to have a fit and energetic India. Isn't it?

• Dabur Honey has 20% less calories than sugar.

• Unlike sugar, Dabur Honey is a natural energy source and easier to digest.

Dabur Honey. Healthy hai. Tasty hai.
