The search for the greatest Indian begins again...

The biggest and most credible awards in Indian media are back, for the third time, adhering to the still unparalleled four-tier process. These awards recognise, celebrate and honour Indians who have contributed to our country, and in turn have strengthened our society and contributed towards building Brand India in 2008. This year's awards, are even more significant as they personify the undying spirit of a billion free Indian minds, in the wake of terror, natural disaster and economic challenges.

Watch the nominees special on CNN-IBN.
This week everyday at 10 pm.
