Name: Barack Hussein Obama. Nationality: American. Occupation: President of the United States of America. In another century, this could have been the fantasy of a slave with diminishing market value. On the night of November 4, the stylus of history has written the destiny of the most powerful nation on earth in just three words: Yes We Can. When countries erupt to the resonance of such words—simple, magical and deceptive—that transport a people to an idyllic tomorrow, we call it revolution. America is in the middle of one, shedding its racial inhibitions and dancing to the tune of a 47-year-old African-American with a funny name and a silver
