Bhopal

This historical circuit begins at the imposing archways of one of Asia's largest mosques, Taj-ul-Masjid. Walk through the fascinating Chowk, explore Shaikat Mahal, Sadar Manzil and Gohar Mahal. Enjoy a cultural afternoon at Bharat Bhawan, Museum of Man and the imposing State Museum. Spend the evening at Van Vihar and the Boat Club. And rest to prepare for spiritual Sanchi.

Sanchi

Make your way to the Great Stupa. Built by Emperor Ashoka in the 3rd century BC, it is one of the most revered Buddhist monuments in India. Stop by the Gateways, the 5th century AD Gupta Temple and the Great Boul. Sanchi, a World Heritage site, will leave you with a yearning to know more about ancient India. The answers are at Bhimbetka.

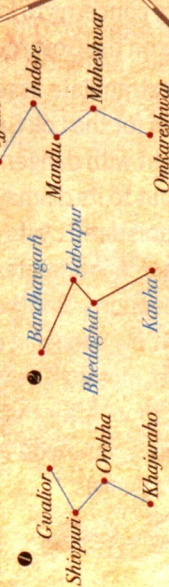

Bhimbetka

Bhimbetka, a World Heritage site, dates earlier than Sanchi. It is an Archaeological treasure of over 600 rock shelters of the Neolithic Age. Explore the caves, see paintings of the early settlers depicting hunting, dancing, animal fights and honey collection. When you wish for a breath of fresh air, head to Pachmarhi.

Pachmarhi

Pachmarhi, a leisurely hill resort, is ideal to rest your feet after all that exploring. Drive through enchanting woods to the Mahadeo Temple stopping by at the overwhelming Handi Khoh. Enjoy the majestic Bee Falls, visit the hilltop Pandav Caves and wind up watching the sun go down sleepily at Dhoopgarh. Yes, it's been a good journey.
