

Two to Tango

What do Shah Rukh Khan and Sushmita Sen have in common?

Two Fs: fun and fearless. Both actors were given the Fama Di

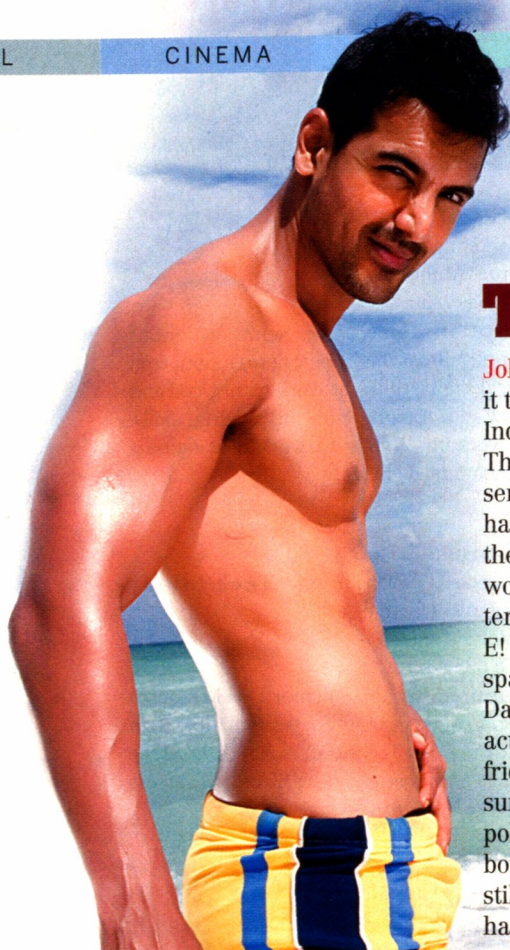

Wills Cosmopolitan Fun Fearless Male and Female Awards in Mumbai on November 1. Mala Sekhri, COO, Lifestyle Group, Living Media India Limited, said, "We were thinking about giving these awards, but took a while to identify the right people." Shah Rukh was honoured for his never-say-die attitude and Sen for living on her own terms. Khan, as usual, had the last word. The award, he said, was proof of his manliness and now the rumours could stop.

TOP OFF

John Abraham has made it to a list where no Indian has been before. The actor, showing some serious booty in Dostana, has been named one of the 10 sexiest men in the world by American entertainment network E! News. He shares the space with soccer stud David Beckham and actor Johnny Depp. Girl-friend Bipasha Basu isn't surprised, "I don't need a poll to tell me that my boyfriend is sexy. But it is still commendable. I'm happy for him."

Ringling the Belle

He has asked 467 questions in Parliament. But Milind Deora, MP from South Mumbai, finally asked film producer Pooja Shetty the question that matters. Known as the MP from Manhattan, Deora has planned a small ceremony for November 9. The credit, however, goes to INDIA TODAY for bringing them together on the cover for the first time in 2005 as young achievers.
