COVER STORY
ECONOMY

24 | The Job Squeeze

The double whammy of a domestic slowdown and global financial crisis melts the job market. As low demand and dear money force firms to shelve investments and cut output, almost a million are on the wrong side of a pink slip.

NATION
JUDICIAL PROBES

37 | Panels of Omission

The demand for a judicial inquiry into the Batla House encounter may be politically motivated but it also shows the need for reform. Not a single probe in the past few years has resulted in any concrete action.

STATES
ASSEMBLY POLLS

42 | Tickets to Fight

It's the time for bruised egos and petty turf wars as political parties finalise tickets for the polls in six states this winter. Even as local issues dominate, the politics of the Centre also comes into play. All in all, it's a regular carnival out there.

NEIGHBOURS
WATER ISSUES

55 | Rivers of Conflict

Water disputes between India and its land neighbours ratchet up tensions and give rise to fears of war. Water treaties too, have failed to resolve conflicts.

SPORTS
CRICKET

62 | Fast Forward

Ishant Sharma, Man of the Series against Australia, is the most exciting young fast bowler and the tankful of oxygen India needs to make their assault on the summit of world cricket.

LEISURE
TELEVISION

81 | Life After Death

Will Indian television change for the better now that Kyunki... has ended? Or will make-up, mangalsutras and madcap fights still rule?
