

KOLKATA | THE FOOT OF GOD

There may not be a Church of Maradona in Kolkata as in Rosario, Argentina. But Kolkatans will get to see the nearest thing to God when Diego Amanda Maradona, arguably among the greatest to have kicked a ball, reaches the City of Joy on December 5. He will inaugurate the private Indian Football School at Maheshtala, and later be felicitated at the Salt Lake stadium where an auction of his memorabilia is also scheduled. No visit to the city is complete without a trip to Mother House to pay tribute to one of Kolkata's icons, Mother Teresa.

Yes, the Punjabi diaspora can too. Punjab-origin expatriates have made it to the legislatures of three countries—Canada, Finland and New Zealand. It began with Canada, where nine Punjabi-Canadians got elected to the House of Commons. Then in Finland Ranbir Sodhi was elected to the Council of Governors of Vantaa, a state with just 200-odd Indian families. Finally there's Kanwaljit Singh Bakshi, the first Sikh member of New Zealand's House of Representatives.

A PROTEST IN BANGALORE

A recent report by the National Family Health Survey states that one in five women in Karnataka have been slapped by their husbands and 7 per cent have been subjected to domestic violence. Less than 1 per cent of them had initiated legal action against their husbands. The India Social Institute in Bangalore has initiated a three-day residential workshop for women to enlighten them on the Domestic Violence Act 2005.

THE NEW T3
TERMINAL
AT INDIRA
GANDHI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT WILL BE THE SECOND-LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

DELHI | Sea Change

When the third terminal comes up at the Indira Gandhi International Airport in 2010 just before the Commonwealth Games, it will be the second-largest airport terminal in the world. The seven-storey T3 terminal is being built on 20 acres of land covering 5,20,000 sq m and will be capable of handling 34 million passengers a year. The largest airport terminal is Beijing's Terminal 3, built just prior to the Olympics.
