

WITH FRIENDS, IT'S HAPPY HOURS ALWAYS!

Great conversation, countless memories and inside jokes; in the realm of friendship it's always happy hours with McDowell's No.1 soda. It is a world where strange quirks are accepted, a warm shoulder for support is always available and 3 am phone calls are never considered odd. Not to forget the unexpected pranks, late night drives and hours of laughing till stomachs hurt. Somehow when you're with friends, you never need an excuse to pop open a bottle of McDowell's No.1 soda.

Childhood friends, Hrithik Roshan and Abhishek Bachchan are constantly pitted against each other, with the industry expecting the two to be engaged in rivalry to out-do each other. Amidst the healthy competition they share professionally they also share a warm friendship that is clearly evident.

Much to the delight of real life best buds Bobby Deol and Akshay Kumar, they had the opportunity to work closely together in the aptly titled 2005 movie, Dosti: Friends forever. They met on the sets of Ajnabee back in 2001 and say they felt an immediate connection and clicked instantly. They always speak fondly of how they share a relationship free from pretense and how they enjoy each other's company, every chance they get.

McDowell's No.1 captures the spirit of friendship and fun with friends. 'Friendzy', easily the biggest event of the year, is an opportunity for friends across the country to get together and make memories to last a lifetime. Track down the carnival at select outlets across the country and begin the Friendzy!
