

To further this, Dr Anjana Vishwanathan has pioneered the Vibrant SoundBridge, this two hour process facilitates clarity of sound and blocks noises, eliminating the hearing aids.

Vikram hospital provides for comprehensive check up and treatment of nose, throat and all this is done with non invasive techniques and minimal scar procedures. The latest technique being, the Lumenis laser, which is used for removal of abnormal tissue.

Being the main referral point in Asia, which provides the best of treatments, patients from the U.S., U.K., European & Gulf countries, Maldives and the Far East come here for quality health care.

It is said that Vincent Van Gogh, the famous post impressionist painter cut off a part of his left ear following bouts of tinnitus, today, Vikram Hospital and ENT Research Centre could have saved the pain for Van Gogh.

In 1993, at Chennai, Dr Prathap Reddy said "Our mission is to bring healthcare of international standards within the reach of every individual. We are committed to the achievement of excellence in education, research healthcare for the benefit of humanity." The Apollo hospitals stand testimony to these words today.

Apollo hospitals are multi specialty tertiary care facilities with centres of excellence in medical disciplines including cardiology, cardio-thoracic surgery, gastroenterology, orthopedics & joint replacement surgery, transplant medicine, neurology & neurosurgery, critical care medicine, nephrology, oncology, pediatrics and reproductive medicine.

Robotics in surgery is a priority at Apollo Hospitals to offer the best in patient care. Asia Pacific's most advanced CyberKnife, the world's only robotic radiosurgery system; a new frontier in cancer care is now accessible at Apollo Speciality Cancer Hospital. Since the launch in March 09, over 21 patients have been treated successfully with the Apollo CyberKnife. Also more recently in association with Hocoma, the first of its kind, Robotic Rehabilitation therapy for neurological movement disorders was introduced in Apollo Chennai

With the strong belief that stem cell treatments have the potential to change the face of human disease and alleviate suffering, Apollo Hospitals is actively pursuing research work in this domain. StemCyte India Therapeutics Private Limited has started establishing cord blood bank at Apollo Ahmedabad. AHERF (a collaborative effort) is in discussion with StemCyte USA Inc for bringing in clinical trials in various indications of cardiovascular diseases, neurodegenerative disorders, liver disorders, hematological disorders etc. AHERF is in the process of establishing Stem Cell Research Centre Laboratory at Apollo Health City, Hyderabad. Apollo Delhi is in discussion with two international organizations for collaboration in stem cell research in diabetic foot ulcer and liver disorders.

The 4 pillars of Apollo Hospitals - excellence, expertise, experience and research has inculcated the passion, which has won Apollo Hospitals 6 JCI accreditations, the largest by any hospital group in the region.

The pleasure of having a new generation born in your arms is experienced new every time by Dr Sooriya Sreekumar.

Dr Sooriya Sreekumar came back to India around the year 2004 after working in United Kingdom hospitals for seven