

COVER STORY ECONOMY

28 | Hope is Back

There is a growing sense in India Inc that the worst is over. Entrepreneurs and chief executives across sectors believe there is a feelgood factor and that India could recover faster than the rest of the world. It is their belief that the tender shoots of tentative recovery could grow roots if the UPA gets it right.

NATION COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

22 | No More Excuses

The inordinately long delay in cabinet formation was not because of the compulsions of coalition but the struggle within the Congress itself. Now the prime minister has to stop the blame game and deliver.

STATES MAHARASHTRA

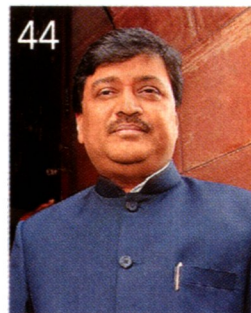

44 | Minority Plan

An enduring belief in the power of sops prompts the Government to announce a slew of populist schemes for minorities. It may not be enough to get the DF a victory in the polls.
