

Step by Step

Only 22, Arushi Mudgal has been bestowed with a rare honour. The Odissi dancer has been invited to perform at the Pina Bausch International Dance Festival, Germany. Mudgal is not only a successful performer but also teaches at the Gandharava Mahavidyalaya. "I dance to communicate my joy," says Mudgal, who is a disciple of her aunt, Madhavi Mudgal. "Her dedication is commendable. Hope she'll continue the tradition," says her guru.

Think ya can do it?

Ravi Rai's critically acclaimed Marathi film Tingya may have lost out to Aamir Khan's Taare Zameen Par as an Oscar entry in the best foreign film category, but the producer is not giving up. Deciding his film is equally deserving, Rai will be entering Tingya independently. "Even though the film has won 38 international awards, I was told Tingya lacked finesse. The subject deserves credit, so I will enter it," says Rai. A product of Small Town Boy Production, this film is aspiring big.

DIFFERENT STROKE

After many will-she won't-she moments, Karisma Kapur has finally decided. To face the camera, that is. The actor will be playing judge on the celebrity dance reality show Nach Baliye 4. Anupama Mandloi, senior creative director, Star Plus, says, "She's looking great these days and the whole thing just fell into place." Joining Kapur on the panel will be choreographer-turned-director Farah Khan who has earlier judged Jhalak Dikhlai Ja, another celeb dance show. Old habits die hard, eh?

YOGEN SHAH

SPOOKY TWOSOME

Model-turned-actor Rajneesh Duggal and Adah Sharma, who debuted in the spooky tale 1920, seem to have become the new horror specialists. ASA Productions has signed them on for two more films, one of which will again try to raise goose bumps. "I think we don't make enough horror films, when there is a huge market for it," says director Vikram Bhatt, who is gearing up for Shaapit. Girish Dhamija's Phir, the other film the twosome will do, is a suspense drama. We are beginning to get scared for the newcomers.

A jhatka like no other

Introducing Bingo! Hatke Jhatke in two yummy flavours -
Funky Masala and Tomato Twist

