

■ LOOK THE WAY YOU WANT!- Yogic techniques of the Ancient Rishis essentially slow down the process of ageing and endow the practitioner with unsurpassed beauty and health. Yogi Ashwini, a living master of Yoga and Tantra, is a testament to the efficacy of these yogic techniques. The people who have known him confirm that his physical looks and persona have only gotten better in the last twenty years. Professionals, businessmen, students, people from all walks of life have testified how practicing regularly the Sanatan Kriya, a simplified and concise form of Ashtanga Yoga, has made them beautifully healthy and balanced. "In today's chaotic world the book 'Sanatan Kriya: Essence of Yoga' is a must read and practicing the Kriya energizes me to not only keep pace with my hectic schedules but also maintain balance in all spheres of my life," writes Vishal Dadlani, music composer and Bollywood lyricist. Modern day techniques can only temporarily make one artificially look good through unnatural means and diets which cause more harm in the long run. For this reason, Yogi Ashwini, the guiding light of Dhyan Foundation, will shortly be coming out with his new book on the techniques of the Vedic Rishis to enhance beauty, glow and slow down the process of ageing. As he says, "Yoga does not bind one by age, rituals, lifestyle or diet. Yoga sets you free." An exclusive meditational retreat is also being organized on the serene banks of Ganges in Rishikesh and the quaint shores of Goa focusing on anti-ageing techniques, beauty and health.
