

RATAN
TATA

1

71, Industrialist (1)

Never Say Die

Because in India's hour of terror, he acted more statesmanlike than any politician.

Because he spoke for the nation in every crisis, whether at Singur or when The Taj was being attacked in Mumbai, personifying India's fighting spirit by ensuring the hotel reopened within a month.

Because he embodies ethical entrepreneurship even when being challenged with dire circumstances and notwithstanding Mamata Banerjee's opposition, will roll out the Nano at the promised price this year.

Because despite the recession, his group's turnover will touch $100 billion this year, and he has not yielded to pessimism, whether on Corus or on the Jaguar Land Rover deal.

the big number A valuation of $10 billion for the telecom business when the Japanese major DoCoMo paid $2.7 billion for a 26 per cent stake.

quotable quote "Some Ms are good and some are bad."

Y2K Most of the cars that he drives have the number 2000.

hot wheels A Metallic Blue Maserati.

is known to Take the controls of his private jets.