

News Worthies

Because not only do they have the largest selling English language daily in the country at 32 lakh copies a day, and the largest English language financial daily selling seven lakh copies every day, but also their television news channel has become the highest rated in that genre.

Because they are the largest private players in radio, with 32 stations across India, to which they have added a foreign acquisition, Virgin Radio, as well.

Because they are the only ones brave enough to launch a business channel slam bang in the middle of a recession.

Because with cash reserves of Rs 3,400 crore, they are best equipped to ride the economic storm.

the big divide The Vice-Chairman now looks after print and the Managing Director after everything else.

big change Mother Indu Jain no longer visits the office.

the big acquisition Of the soon-to-be-husband of back-from-Stanford daughter Trishala who has been ensconced in the fourth floor of Times House.

facing the axe The Times of India's edit page.

SAMIR & VINEET
JAIN

8

54 and 42, Media Barons 9

Samir (left)
and Vineet

NARENDRA BISHT

AMIT KUMAR

Heir Rising

Because despite the economic downturn, the consolidated revenues of the Aditya Birla Group are still $28 billion and he has a footprint that straddles 25 countries.

Because his companies have attained global leadership and are among the world's most cost-efficient copper and aluminum producers.

Because a year of quiet consolidation has seen the Group's retail operations touch 615 supermarkets and two hypermarkets.

Because thanks to a new will by grandfather B.K. Birla, a large part of the Rs 5,000-crore empire will be inherited by him.

9

KUMAR MAN-
GALAM BIRLA

41, Industrialist 5

biggest stress buster Shooting with his Morini pistol at the Maharashtra Rifle Association's shooting range in Worli, Mumbai.

recession mantra Consistent cost management is holding the group in good stead today.

road ahead Wants to make the Aditya Birla Group a part of the Fortune 150 club by 2014.

BHASKAR PAUL

