

Master of All Trades

Because he is steering the makeover of the eponymous GMR Group from a domestic player in the infrastructure business to a global player with a presence in seven countries.

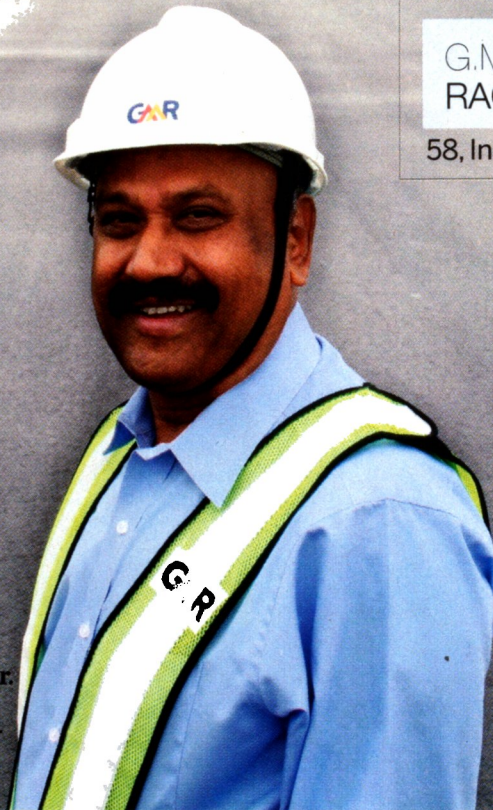

Becausewith the Rajiv Gandhi International Airport in Hyderabad, completed in a record 30 months in March last year, he proved India can have world class facilities.

Becauseeven as the Group builds the new terminal at the Delhi airport, it has ensured an enduring connect with the Delhi Daredevils in the IPL contest.

big buy Acquisition of 50 per cent stake in Intergen, a leading global power generation company, at a cost of approximately $1 billion, making the Group the largest private power generation company in India.

little known fact A mechanical engineer by training, he was employed in the Public Works Department of Andhra Pradesh before he resigned to turn a jute trader.

should be embarrassed about The foray into insurance, creating ING Vysya and finally pulling out of it.

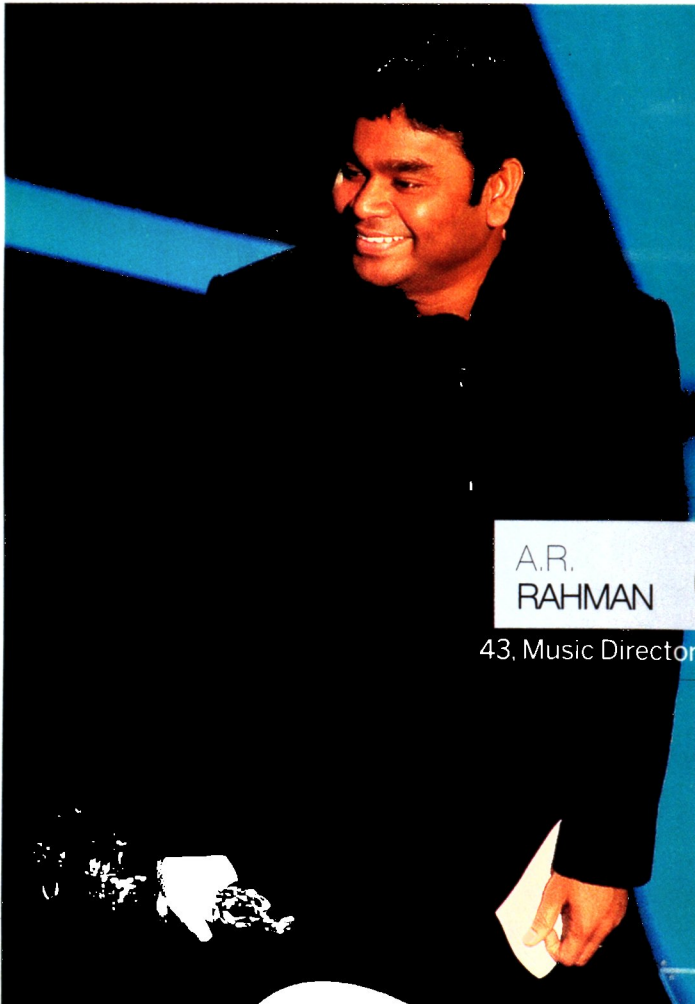

G.M.
RAO

58, Industrialist (17)

10

A PRABHAKAR RAO

AFF

A.R.
RAHMAN

43, Music Director (47)

11

The Maestro

Because his recently-acquired hardware underlines India's growing soft power and his twin Oscar wins have made him the country's golden boy.

Because he is every international artist's first choice for collaboration in India, whether it is Kylie Minogue or Akon.

Becausehe is an amazing amalgam of Indian multiculturalism: born a Hindu, he converted to Islam at his mother's behest and gave his first public performance in a church as an 11-year-old.

Becausehis music, a blend of raga and reggae, jazz and hip-hop, has opened the world's eyes to the dazzling possibilities of Indian film sound.

time out None. While the rest of the world is celebrating his win, he has got back to work, completing his pending projects in India for "furious directors".

loves to Surf the Internet on his MacBook and ensures that everyone in his team uses the same too.

first stop anywhere Mosque and then an electronics shop. Currently devoted to the Continuum fingerboard.