

DEEPAK PAREKH

64, Banker (15)

14

Mr Solution

Because he is the go-to guy for government and business, whether it is Satyam or the troubled US-64.

Becausein a year of edifices turning to dust, HDFC will close with an estimated growth of 19 per cent.

Becausehe brings credibility to whatever he does, whether it is putting the nuts and bolts of the new pension policy in place or advising the Government on providing affordable housing to the masses in the country.

Becausethe rumour is that he knows someone on a first name basis on the board of every Fortune 500 company.

recession mantra Be cautious and conservative in such times. Don't focus on market share, instead concentrate on the bottom line.

road ahead Officially it's his last year in office and July onwards he'll be busy planning his exit from the company.

favourite getaways London and New York, where he enjoys a game of cricket or tennis during the season.

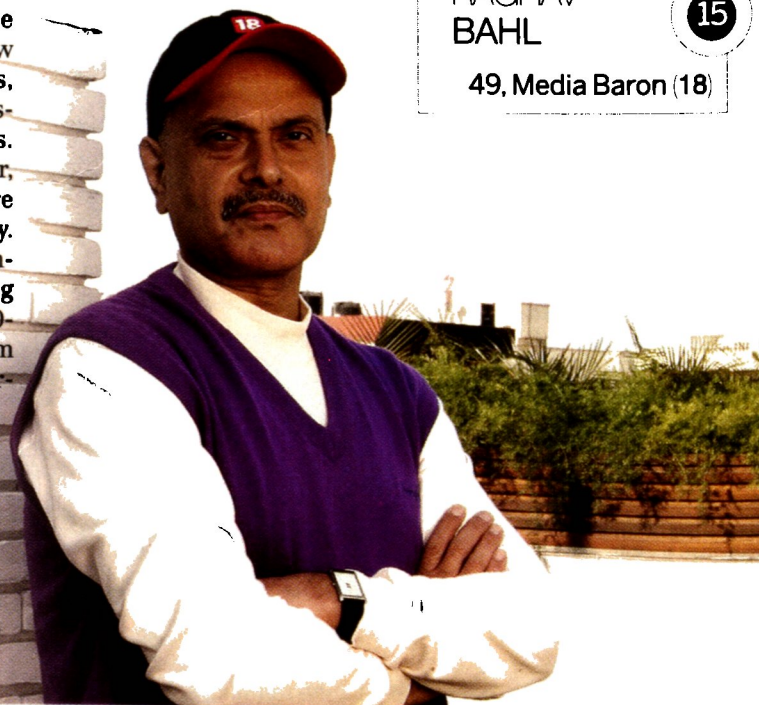

HENANT CHAWLA

The Colors of Money

Becausefrom measuring the heartbeat of the Bombay Stock Exchange, his network now increases the pulse rate of prime time viewers, with his new channel Colors within striking distance of the nine-year-long No. 1, Star Plus. Becausethree of the biggest hits of last year, Singh is Kinng, Golmaal Returns and Ghajini, were owned or distributed by The Indian Film Company. Becausewhile his two business channels continue to dominate their spaces, he is expanding into new media, with Homeshopping18 a Rs 200-crore property in its second year, and in.com becoming the second largest Indian general interest portal within six months of its launch.

the big discovery That he likes watching soaps, especially of his own channel. "Balika Vadhu for sure, and occasionally, Jaane Kya Baat Hui, Uttaran and Jeevan Saathi".

wish he could have Kept some extra cash to buy media assets which are currently available at such mouth-watering discounts.

RAGHAV
BAHL

49, Media Baron (18)

15