

In His Own League

Because Jaane Tu...Ya Jaane Na, which he produced, and Ghajini, which he starred in, were two of the biggest hits of last year, grossing over Rs 350 crore at the box office.

Because he is the Establishment's first choice, be it endorsing the Ministry of Tourism's Incredible India campaign or lecturing at the Lal Bahadur Shastri Academy of Administration in Mussoorie.

Becausehe is the face of six brands—his last deal with Tata Sky wrapped at Rs 14 crore a year.

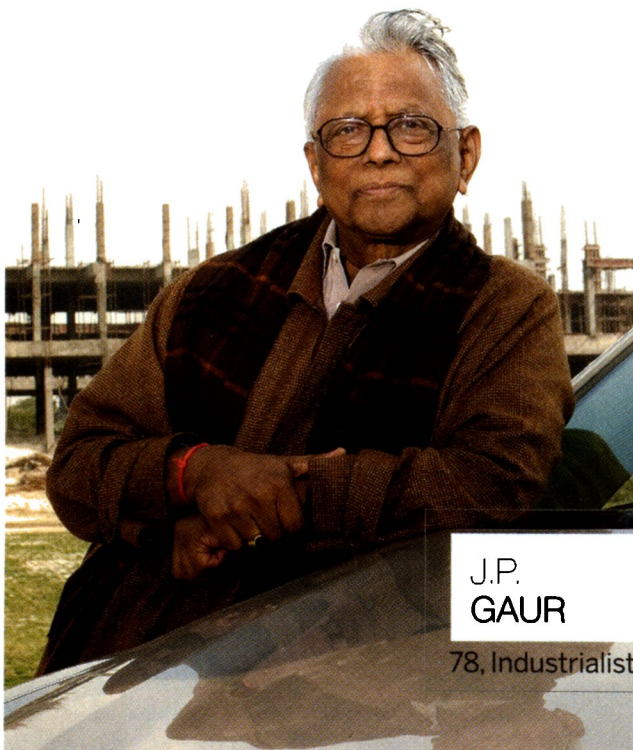

Becausehe acquired the best body in Khandom and made the eight-pack part of public discourse.

currently negotiating The purchase of a housing society in Santa Cruz, Mumbai.

big surprise That he hasn't signed on anything after Raju Hirani's forthcoming film 3 Idiots and has only a cameo as a painter in wife Kiran Rao's experimental film Dhobi Ghat.

idea of extravagance Gifting a 7-Series BMW to his nephew after the release of his movie and hiring a helicopter to make it to his wedding anniversary.

HEMANT CHAWLA

J.P.
GAUR

78, Industrialist (27)

AAMIR
KHAN

16

43, Actor (38)

BANDEEP SINGH

Business As Unusual

Because the Jaypee Group's ambitious Ganga Express-way project across 14 districts of Uttar Pradesh will benefit at least 20 million people.

Because it became India's largest private hydropower producer with the commissioning of the 400 MW Vishnu Prayag station and doubled its cement production capacity from nine million tonnes to 18 million tonnes per year.

Because with power, cement, infrastructure, hospitality, real estate and education, the Rs 5,500-crore Jaypee Associates has a foothold in 14 states and is the only group in the country that successfully completed two power projects in Jammu & Kashmir in the last decade—Dulhasti and Baglihar.

Because he has a great equation with the chief minister of Uttar Pradesh.

the turning point The death of his elder brother in 1946 in an accident. Gaur says it changed his life, making him a man of steel. He says he has not cried since.

real estate watch A township developed by the Group at Patiali in Etah district, Uttar Pradesh, over a 12-year period, at an investment of Rs 25,000 crore. Says it will be bigger than Chandigarh city.

17