

JHARKHAND TOWARDS A PERFECT FUTURE

Jharkhand, since its inception on November 15, 2000, has been marching ahead in every aspect of life. To fulfill the dreams of its 27 million odd population, which includes various tribes, the Government is doing everything possible. Be it NAREGA or rural electrification, urban development or rural roads, the state government of Jharkhand has not left any stone unturned to nurture the dream of a developed, healthy, prosperous and peaceful state.
