

Nalli CHINNASAMI CH

SILK CLOTH & PIECE-GOODS MERCHANTS

Tradition of rich pure silks

Across the globe, Nalli is synonymous with rich pure Indian silks. A brand that originated from the temple town of Kancheepuram in Tamilnadu, Nalli Silks is now a global name.

Worldwide, Nalli has branches in Toronto, Singapore, California and London. In India, the Bangalore, Hyderabad, Vizag, Mumbai and Delhi showrooms are just as crowded as they are in Chennai, Coimbatore, Madurai, Trichy and Tirunelveli.

Nalli is a brand that dates back to 1928, when Nalli Chinnasami Chetty travelled to Chennai everyday from Kanchipuram to sell his wares. The huge demand he saw convinced him to open a store opposite Panagal park T.Nagar in 1935. Nalli Narayan Samy Chetti took over from his father, but his untimely death forced 16-year-old Nalli Kuppuswami Chetty to enter the family trade, which is run by him today. Generations have changed on both sides of the counter, but Nalli's presence remains as strong as ever.

Nalli remains the most beloved sari store thanks to its assured high quality of its silks. The Zaris (gold borders) are checked personally by supervisors who visit every loom.

Decades of loyal customers will vouch for the brand's attention to detail. Today, as much as 80 years ago, Nalli stands as a symbol of purity and prize workmanship.

All of JFA show rooms are ISO certified. There are over 35 to 40 designs/models for each. The innovative design department keeps updating the models as per the feedback received from customers from time to time.
