

Mail

agenda for the next assembly polls. Playing with people's emotions always pays rich rewards: in politics, it guarantees power too.

DR KARANAMRAO,

via www.indiatoday.in

Politicians of all hues, hailing from Uttar Pradesh and Bihar, are taking potshots at each other for having failed to protect north Indians in Maharashtra ("Dividing the Nation", November 10). But will they ever realise that they are to some extent responsible for the current state of affairs? If they had taken interest in the welfare of their people and ensured good living standards, provided better job opportunities and prospects of a bright future, no one from these states would have moved out in search of greener pastures.

RAJEEV KUMAR PANDAY,

via www.indiatoday.in

Innocence Lost

It is not so much the custom to be blamed for child marriage, as is the poverty and selfishness of parents who force their children to marry and then face the rigours of widowhood ("Widowed Children", November 10). To check this evil practice from spreading its tentacles, the state governments must be firm in implementing harsher punishments for those found guilty. The NGOs also need to play an active role in spreading awareness at the COL. R.I. via www.indiatoday.in

Sinfu

Live-in their in are fou ience n tion ("I Novem of this should quenc ugly. J

terr uns pol

atten way of life, thereby ing the social fabric.

Y.G. CHOUKSEY,

via www.indiatoday.in

Show Pause

Apropos of your news item ("Incredible Halt", November 17) on the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) rejecting the

GOOD LOOKING RASCAL

MAKES IT LOOK EASY

JOHN MILLER

(Shirts: Trouser: Suit: Jacket: Tie)

Autumn-Winter Collection 2008

A fresh confidence with formals.

that prom and activities in overseas tourist generating markets are continuing as scheduled and no event has been cancelled by the PMO to date.

ALOK DESHWAL,

Press Information Bureau,

Ministry of Tourism and Culture

by British Aerospace and by Jagjivan Ram failed to diffuse the outraged reaction to the allegations.

Readers are recommended to make appropriate enquiries before sending money, incurring expenses or entering into commitments in relation to any advertisement appearing in this publication. The India Today Group does not vouch for any claims made by the advertisers of products and services. The printer, publisher, editor-in-chief and the editor of the India Today Group publications shall not be held liable for any consequences in the event of such claims not being honoured by the advertisers.

E-MAIL YOUR LETTERS TO: letters.editor@intoday.com

FAX THEM TO: 011-23316180

OR LOG ON TO: www.indiatoday.in