

A classic and contemporary corduroy blazer can easily fit into any man's casual attire.

The corduroy blazer is built for comfort, but with a wealth of detail that bridges the gap between a casual social outing and a day at the office.

Pantaloon has a range of colours in two different kinds of corduroy blazers.

14 wale Corduroy blazers (available in 6 colours for Rs.2499) are in this winter, whether for casual Fridays or simply kicking around on the weekends.

The other trendy range in corduroy is in 8 wale (Rs.2999) with a leather patch to add panache. Considering its versatility with regard to colors, cuts, and styles, it can suit every occasion.

Pair your corduroy blazer with printed shirt and you are ready to party. A corduroy blazer paired with a turtle neck tee gives the perfect casual look for a Sunday brunch.

For the Friday dressing look at work don your colorful blazer with a pair of Chino (All day Chinos available for Rs. 699), a simple brown leather belt and suede leather shoes.
