

46, INDUSTRIALIST
CHAIRMAN, ADANI GROUP
INITIAL INVESTMENT IN 1985 Rs 1 lakh
CURRENT TURNOVER Rs 23,000 crore

utor to nation-building." It's the kind of attitude that many of India's industrialists possessed immediately after Independence but which seems to have gone out of fashion. Adani is, however, an uncommon entrepreneur who matches lofty words with deeds. Indeed, despite the current downturn, no one will be surprised if he achieves his ambition to take the Adani Group's turnover to Rs 62,000 crore in 2013.

by Uday Mahurkar

success MANTRA

Integrate individual ambition with national vision to contribute to nation-building

starting SMALL

Moving around on a scooter, he used to sell plastic pipes produced by his brother in 1983

turning POINT

After a PVC scarcity in 1984, Adani decided on importing it, doing business worth Rs 10 crore in a year