BOXED IN

9X is trying its best to ruffle a lot of feathers with its new show, managing to get tv frenemies Mika and Rakhi Sawant together, as captains, on One Two Ka Four-Yeh Hai Jalwa. Though the singer claims he has no problem with Sawant, he doubled his fee after hearing of her participation. Mahabharat is already playing on the channel, but the real battle might just happen here.

GIREESH GV

Cricket Maiden

She danced the dance and showed a lot of skin in Shootout at Lokhandwala, but when even that didn't get her roles, Aarti Chhabria has decided to join the tv brigade. The actor who was last seen in the completely forgettable film, Dhoom Dhadaka, will now host a daily cricket-based show alongside cricketer Atul Wasan for the forthcoming Indian Champions League. "It will give me a chance to interact with the audience and they will get to know me better," says Chhabria. Since she has been missing the action on the big screen, we wonder if she will be able to score on the small one.

Changing Gear

She surprised everyone by recently marrying chartered accountant Vivek Mehra. Now Neena Gupta, the woman best known for being cricketer Vivian Richards' girlfriend, is treading unknown territory again by playing dress up. The actor will soon be opening her own boutique in Mumbai. "I have always been interested in designing," says the Saans director. With her bevy of celebrity friends, it doesn't look like customers will be a problem. Ah, the joys of being famous.

YOGESH SHAH

IN THE DOCK

After the turn of the moral brigade, it is now the religious camp that's after south Indian soft porn star Shakeela. The actor showed up at a court hearing clad in a burqa, irking Muslim women's groups. "She doesn't wear any clothes in films, how dare she choose symbols of Islam?" says a spokesperson of an Islamic women's group. "I'm Muslim, so will wear a burqa. I chose acting because we were poor. Where were these people then?" retorts Shakeela.
