WE WILL STAND UP AND TAKE ACTION. JOIN US ON 17, 18 & 19 OCT'08.

In 2000, leaders of 189 countries signed the Millennium Declaration promising to achieve eight Millennium Development Goals – to eradicate poverty, achieve more and better aid, debt cancellation, education for all boys and girls, healthcare, trade justice, gender equality and public accountability. Today, there has been some progress towards these but there is still a lot that needs to be achieved.

As responsible citizens, it is up to each one of us to remind our leaders to keep their promise. Last year, over 43 million people around the world stood up as a symbol of this reminder, and in the process set a Guinness World Record. This year, you too can be part of the Stand Up, Take Action movement. Don't take things sitting down, take action.
