Bhedaghat

Begin this spiritual and adventurous circuit at the banks of the river Narmada. Be mesmerised by the glittering splendour of the 100ft high Marble Rocks, visit the Chauvasat Yogi Temple and view the sheer drop of the mighty Dhuwadhar Falls. Get a good night's rest before you head on to the famed Tiger Country.

Bandhavgarh, Kanha, Pench

Awarded as the 'Best-Maintained Tourist-Friendly National Parks', this trio is on everyone's list. Bandhavgarh boasts of the highest density of Tigers, and you're sure to spot the Leopard and the Sloth Bear too. Kanha is home to the rare Barasingha, Indian Bison, Black Buck and of course, the Tiger. Pench, the inspiration for Kipling's famous Jungle Book, has the highest density of herbivores in India. After your adventures in the jungle, head to human civilisation at Amarkantak.

Amarkantak

Situated at 1065 mt., Amarkantak is a Hindu pilgrim centre. Seek blessings at Narmada Udgam, a temple built at the source of the river Narmada, the holiest spot in Amarkantak. Wander around and hike in the holy ponds, lofty hills, forests, breathtaking waterfalls and the air of serenity. Surely, there's no better way to end a beautiful journey.

From World Heritage sites to legendary holy cities to scenic wonders to Tiger Reserves and National Parks, we have convenient tour plans for all. Log on to www.mptourism.com
