

AGENTS OF CHANGE

CARE TODAY is working with communities devastated by the Bihar floods. Here's an update of its contribution to the rebuilding of the affected lives and areas.

CARE TODAY
AN INDIA TODAY GROUP INITIATIVE

The Kosi breached its embankments on August 18 and the subsequent flooding of a large swathe of north Bihar led to a humanitarian disaster, affecting more than 27 lakh lives. CARE TODAY worked with an NGO, Bihar Development Trust (BDT). It operates in Bhagalpur and Patna districts in the fields of microfinance and livelihoods. CARE TODAY provided a grant of Rs 5 lakh to BDT for immediate relief work in villages in Nawgachhia sub-division of Bhagalpur district. The relief work was undertaken in Khairpur, Dhruvganj and Mirjafri Panchayats of Kharik Block and in the villages of Kazikorayya, Khairpur, Lodipur, Mirjafri and Dhruvganj between September 7 and 28. BDT's volunteers coordinated the work with support from the affected communities and CARE TODAY. Relief in the form of rice, pulses, potatoes, salt, bleaching powder, fuel wood, jaggery, plastic bags and matchboxes was distributed, benefiting 10,800 people. CARE TODAY will be involved with interventions for the rehabilitation of affected areas for the next few years. We require your support for this. Please do continue sending contributions to the Bihar Flood Relief Fund.

We acknowledge contributions of Rs 5,000 and above to the relief fund received till October 7, 2008
